Office Circular

It is hereby informed that the 2nd Batch of FP (Foundation Programming) Rollout under Infosys Camus Connect Programme shall commence in the Institute w.e.f. 16th February, 2010.

The programme for the 1st Batch was a grand success last year. The students who participated in the same were immensely benefitted as regards Skills Development & General Awareness in tune with the changing scenarios of Software Industry. In case any student who undertook the programme joins Infosys, he would get the benefit of seniority and his training period shall be curtailed in the Company.

Highlights of the FP Rollout Programme (2nd Batch):-

- 55 Contact Hours comprising of theory and practical sessions.
- Students acquire skills as per the present market trends.
- The students shall also get a Certificate from Infosys after successful completion of the course that would increase his/her employability
- In case a student who has undergone this programme joins Infosys, his training period shall be curtailed and he would also enjoy the benefit of seniority and salary increment over others.
- 2 hour classes shall be held after normal working hours of the Institute three times in a week.
- The programme would be offered free of cost to all students who are interested. However, all interested students would have to deposit Rs.500/- as refundable security to the Institute.

As per the directions of Infosys, it is mandatory for all the final year students who are stationed in the Institute (Not away for Six Months Industrial Training) to join the programme.

The other final year students and pre-final year students who are interested can also give their names to their respective Industrial Coordinators along with a refundable security of Rs. 500/- latest by 12.00 P.M. on 15th February, 2010. Since the No. of seats are limited, students would be shortlisted on the basis of aggregate merit of previous semesters.

Further, it is also clarified that students joining the programme would have to attend atleast 75% of scheduled lectures, failing which their security shall be forfeited

It is very good opportunity for the students and they are advised to avail the same to their advantage.
